It's one thing to have a good idea, but it's another to convince someone else it's good.

The ability to communicate your idea is what ultimately drives sales, sways opinions, and influences audiences no matter whether you express that idea in person, via email, or through content.

For thousands of years stories have served as vehicles to transport ideas and we're hard-wired to pay attention to them.

A story can not only grab your audience's attention, it can also change their lives.
