OFFICERS

ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER

Ogden Chapter № 2 Royal Arch Masons of Utah

Installation of Officers for a UTAH Chapter of Royal Arch Masons

PREFACE:

From the dimmest dawn of history, man has marked events of importance with song, marching, incense and solemnity. When a king was crowned, all of this activity made an impression on the people and made it a talked about event.

So it was when Hammarabi assumed the throne of Babylon; when Caesar held his "triumphs," and when Charlemagne became Holy Roman Emperor. Or, even within our biblical tradition, when Solomon became head of the Jewish nation.

The installation of officers of a local chapter may be one of the most important events in the lives of the new officers. It, too, should be marked with glamour and display. As a wedding may be a once-in-a-lifetime experience, so is becoming the High Priest of a chapter a once-in-a-lifetime experience. It should be celebrated with the importance and display it deserves. It is one of the few means by which we may, openly, display Capitular Masonry to the world.

The suggested ceremonies here outlined, are intended to provide dignified ostentation, a feeling of importance, and joy in the event. The more people that are invited to attend, the more successful it can be.

SUGGESTIONS

The Ceremony of installation may be preceded by a dinner, with the officers in formal attire or in dark business suits. If it is the pleasure of the High Priest elect, he may, of course, suggest that the officers' ladies "dress" for the occasion - formal or informal. The beauty of the event may be enhanced, further, by having each, officer Invested with a flower, by the lady of his choice, as he is installed.

During the dinner, there may be introductions, as appropriate, and, possibly a short, light or humorous speech. Other introductions, speeches and entertainment should follow the installation.

Should the chapter choose to eliminate the dinner entirely, refreshments should be provided for those present following the ceremony.

PRELIMINARY

Chairs should be provided for the officers-to-be-Installed. One for each officer EXCEPT THE HIGH PRIEST. These chairs may be placed west of the altar and arranged in a semi-circle or in a straight line, if more convenient.

A table should be provided near the altar with the several jewels and swords arranged thereon for easy investiture of the officers. It is most convenient to have this table placed just to the north of the altar.

(Note: Only the "furniture" of the chapter is ever to be placed upon the altar itself - hence the table.)

The Charter of the Chapter is to be prominently displayed for all to see. The book containing the ' Constitution and General Regulations of the Grand Chapter, the By- Laws of the local' Chapter, the gavel of authority, and the hat or covering for the High Priest should be placed on or near the podium.

Installation of Officers for a UTAH Chapter of Royal Arch Masons

Each of the officers-to-be-installed should be properly "clothed" with the apron of the office in which each is to be installed.

Before the ceremony of installation can begin, it is necessary that the chapter be "opened" by the present High Priest. This may be done in any adjacent room if necessary. If this opening is conducted in an adjacent room, the open bible must be transferred to the chapter altar for the installation ceremony.

If this is to be an open Installation, the chapter must then suspend labor for the purpose of conducting the ceremony and the bible, with square and compass thereon, left open at the twelfth chapter of Ecclesiastes.

The flag, of course, is also moved.

OPTIONAL CEREMONIES

(Any, or all, of the following ceremonies may be added at the point indicated in the installation ritual:)

CANDLE LIGHTING CEREMONY: (The candelabra from the M.E.M. may be used if none other is available). A group (perhaps the wife, children or other members of the incoming High Priest's family) may enter the room to solemn music, proceed to the candelabra, light the candles, and slowly march out. Placement of candelabra is optional but 'is more effective if placed in the east.

BIBLE CEREMONY: Children, relatives, Job's Daughters, or others, may carry the opened bible, with solemn music, to the altar, placing it there, and slowly withdrawing from the room. Room lights are kept low during ceremony.

FLAG CEREMONY: The flag of the United States is brought in (room lights at bright) by a color guard (If possible) of Knights Templar in full uniform, DeMolay boys in full regalia, or any other Masonic or civic group chosen. The flag is paraded to the east and halted before the installing Officer, who, then, says "Join me in the pledge to the flag of our country". The pledge concluded, the officer directs the color guard to post the flag in its place of honor. This accomplished, the color guard will march out.

OFFICERS' CHAIRS:

A companion, (possibly designated as the "Installing Grand Sentinel") may remove, singly, the chairs vacated by the officers to be installed, as each is conducted to the altar for installation.

SPECIAL NOTE:

The following ceremony is designed for use by a, Royal Arch Chapter in either an "open" or a "closed" (tiled) ceremony. All of the following may be used in either event, but if a shortened form is thought desirable for the "closed" initiation, all that which is printed in BLACK INK may be eliminated from the ritual.

Those parts printed in RED INK should, in no case, be eliminated from any installation.

CEREMONY OF INSTALLATION

At the appointed time, the Installing Officer (who must be either a present or past High Priest of a chapter) will enter the room, followed by his assisting installing officers. He will proceed to the east and take a position at the podium with his assisting officers taking positions in front of the east and facing west.

The Installing Officer will explain that, for the purpose of this ceremony, he represents the Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Utah, and that his assisting officers also, for the time being, represent corresponding officers of the Grand Chapter. He introduces the assisting officers, and directs them to take their stations and places. Assisting officers should be, if possible and desirable, Past High Priests. They are the Grand Captain of the Host, Grand Secretary, Grand Chaplain, and such others as may be desired.

GRAND HIGH PRIEST: COMPANION GRAND SECRETARY, YOU WILL READ THE NAMES OF THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN ELECTED AND APPOINTED TO SERVE THIS CHAPTER DURING THE ENSUING YEAR.

GRAND CAPTAIN OF THE HOST

(Retires and conducts the officers to be installed into the room in order of rank and through the Sentinel's door. He leads them toward the north and behind the placed chairs, then toward the south in front of their chairs.)

(He leads the High Priest elect to the west of the altar, while the remaining officers continue to their chairs - the King elect at the extreme south of the line. All face to the east when in line and remain standing. He then says:

MOST EXCELLENT GRAND HIGH PRIEST, I PRESENT FOR INSTALLATION, COMPANION WHO HAS BEEN ELECTED HIGH PRIEST OF THIS CHAPTER, AND HIS OTHER ELECTIVE AND APPOINTIVE OFFICERS.

THEY DECLARE THEMSELVES READY FOR INSTALLATION, SKILLFUL IN THE ROYAL ART, AND ATTENTIVE TO THE MORAL PRECEPTS OF OUR FOREFATHERS.
(He then withdraws to the side)

GRAND HIGH PRIEST: THE AUDIENCE WILL PLEASE RISE.

(Note. The usual gavel knocks may be used if the installation is behind tiled doors.
No gavel knocks may be used in an "open" installation — at any time)

Installation of Officers for a UTAH Chapter of Royal Arch Masons
