Master Prompts for Convention Infographic Posters

Prepared for: Beehive Mason (W.E. McCraw) — Keynote Speaker, Masonic Educational Convention

Purpose: Two ready-to-paste “master prompts” for ChatGPT’s image-generation tool, each producing a large-format poster that maps a Master Mason’s journey through one of the concordant/appendant bodies.

HOW TO USE THESE

Paste the full text of one prompt block into ChatGPT (a model with image generation). Ask it to first produce the copy deck as text so you can proofread the facts, then generate the poster image from that approved copy. Treat the image output as a design mockup, not a print-ready file — hand the approved layout and copy to a professional print designer for true 300 DPI production art.

MASTER PROMPT 1 — THE YORK RITE / AMERICAN RITE JOURNEY

ROLE

You are a Masonic educator and senior infographic/poster designer specializing in fraternal, architectural, and historical iconography. You have precise knowledge of the York Rite (American Rite) of Freemasonry in the United States: the Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, the Council of Royal & Select Masters, and the Commandery of Knights Templar.

TASK

Design one large-format educational poster that visually maps a Master Mason's journey through the York Rite — from the 3rd Degree (Master Mason) he already holds, through Knighthood in the Commandery of Knights Templar. This poster will be displayed at a Masonic educational convention and used by a keynote speaker teaching Master Masons who have not yet joined the York Rite. Its purpose is twofold:

1. EDUCATE — accurately map the structure, sequence, and meaning of each body and degree.
2. ENTICE — create a genuine, dignified desire to petition and continue the journey.

AUDIENCE

Master Masons (3°) in good standing. Most know the Blue Lodge well but know little or nothing about the York Rite. This is a fraternal, adult, educated audience — not the general public. Do NOT include or imply any ritual secrets, modes of recognition, passwords, obligations, or esoteric working content. Stay strictly at the level of structure, history, chronology, and the publicly taught moral themes already used in official Grand Chapter / Grand Council / Grand Commandery new-member literature.

POSTER SPECS

- Target size: 24" x 36", portrait orientation (adjust if your print vendor specifies otherwise).
- Legible from 6–8 feet away: large headline, short body copy, high contrast.
- Deliver as a single cohesive composition, not a slide with bullet text pasted on.

CONTENT ARCHITECTURE

Present the journey as a single ascending path (staircase, mountain ascent, or architectural climb toward a capstone/arch) with three landings. Use exactly this structure and sequence:

OPENING FRAME

"You Are Here: Master Mason, 3°" – the foundation already held.

LANDING 1 – CHAPTER OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS (Capitular Degrees)

Theme: "Completing the Story of the Temple"

- Mark Master – the workman's mark and the lesson of the rejected stone that becomes the head of the corner; the dignity of honest labor and fair wages.
- Past Master (Virtual) – the necessity of learning to obey, and to govern oneself, before one governs others.
- Most Excellent Master – the completion and dedication of King Solomon's Temple.
- Royal Arch Mason (Exaltation) – traditionally described as the summit of Ancient Craft Masonry: the rebuilding after captivity and the recovery of what was lost.

LANDING 2 – COUNCIL OF ROYAL & SELECT MASTERS (Cryptic Degrees)

Theme: "The Circle of Perfection"

- Royal Master – set chronologically before the Master's death; amplifies and deepens the Master Mason Degree.
- Select Master – set chronologically before the Master Mason Degree; the preservation of sacred treasures later recovered in the Royal Arch.
- (Optional secondary note: Super Excellent Master is conferred as a supplemental/honorary degree in many – not all – jurisdictions; confirm local practice before including it as a required station.)

LANDING 3 – COMMANDERY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR (Chivalric Orders)

Theme: "Applying the Lessons to the Christian Life"

Note on this landing only: petitioners must profess faith in the Christian religion.

- Order of the Red Cross – Zerubbabel's embassy to Darius and the triumph of truth; the bridge from Cryptic Masonry to the Orders of Chivalry.
- Order of Malta – a strictly Christian order tracing to the Crusading era and Saint John the Baptist; the Maltese Cross.
- Order of the Temple (Knighting) – the capstone of the York Rite; a solemn order of trial and preparation culminating in Knighthood, with the Passion Cross as its emblem of sacrifice.

SUMMIT MARKER

"Sir Knight" – the York Rite's capstone reached.

BEYOND THE SUMMIT (small secondary panel, clearly marked as further/optional)

Knight York Cross of Honour and the Priory – available only to those who have presided over each of the three bodies. Frame this as "for those who lead," not as a required station.

FOOTER / CALL TO ACTION

Close with a dignified, earned line in this register (write an original line, do not fabricate attribution): something evoking "this is not just a journey – it is a destination," paired with a plain instruction: "Ask a York Rite Mason how to begin your petition."

VISUAL DIRECTION

- Central metaphor: an ascending staircase, mountain path, or architectural progression toward a keystone/arch.
- Color-code the three landings distinctly but harmoniously (e.g., Chapter in red and gold, Council in purple, Commandery in black/white/red) – these are common but not universal jurisdictional color associations; verify against your own Grand Bodies' style before final print.
- Iconography: keystone, trowel, ark/vault motif, triple tau, Maltese cross, Passion cross – render all of these as ORIGINAL stylized line art. Do not copy any jurisdiction's copyrighted or trademarked seal, crest, or logo.
- Do not depict ritual scenes, candidates mid-ceremony, or specific working tools/props used inside the esoteric ceremonies themselves. Use only symbols long published in open Masonic literature (monitors, new-member pamphlets, jewel designs).
- Typography: a dignified serif for headlines (evoking carved stone/architecture), a clean sans-serif for body copy, legible at poster distance.

FACTUAL GUARDRAILS

- Use only the degree names, themes, and sequence given above.
- Do not invent dates, statistics, or membership numbers.
- Do not quote or closely paraphrase ritual, obligation, or password language from any source.
- Where jurisdictional practice varies (noted above), say so on the poster in a small footnote rather than presenting one jurisdiction's practice as universal.

DELIVERABLES

1. A full poster-ready copy deck (every headline, body line, and caption, organized by section exactly as above) for me to proofread before any image is generated.

2. After I approve the copy, one generated poster image at the specified dimensions using the approved copy and the visual direction above.
3. A short paragraph explaining your color, layout, and iconography choices.

TONE

Confident, warm, dignified – a teacher speaking knight to knight. Avoid hype language ("amazing," "don't miss out"). Prefer earned, historically grounded appeals: this is where the story the Blue Lodge began is completed.

MASTER PROMPT 1B — A MAN'S JOURNEY: THE YORK RITE STORYBOARD (HIGH-CONVICTION PERSUASION EDITION)

An alternate, more dynamic treatment of Prompt 1, built as a scene-by-scene storyboard rather than a static three-landing poster. This version explicitly stages all FOUR Bodies of the American/York Rite — Symbolic Craft Lodge, Capitular Masonry, Cryptic Masonry, Chivalric Masonry — as its own beat in the story, and applies real persuasion psychology: it identifies the specific human want each Body answers, and speaks to that want directly. It does NOT use manufactured urgency, false scarcity, or "the pitch outweighs the truth" tactics — those work against a fraternity whose central recruiting ethic is "to be one, ask one." Every exact quotation below is verified, capped at one per source per the strict quotation limits below, and cited MLA-style. Everything else is paraphrase in original wording.

ROLE

You are a Masonic educator and senior infographic/poster designer specializing in fraternal, architectural, and historical iconography, working alongside a persuasion strategist who understands audience psychology. You have precise knowledge of the York Rite (American Rite) of Freemasonry in the United States across all four of its Bodies: the Symbolic Craft Lodge, the Chapter of Royal Arch Masons (Capitular Masonry), the Council of Royal & Select Masters (Cryptic Masonry), and the Commandery of Knights Templar (Chivalric Masonry).

TASK

Storyboard a dynamic, six-scene infographic poster telling "A Man's Journey Through the York Rite" — from the moment he is raised a Master Mason through his Knighting in the Commandery. Each scene names the specific human want it answers and delivers a short, high-conviction line of copy aimed at that want. This is for a keynote speaker teaching Master Masons at an educational convention.

THE PERSUASION METHOD (read this before writing any copy)

Use the real insight behind the "sell me this pen" exercise: a weak pitch describes the product's features; a strong pitch diagnoses what the listener already wants and shows him the product is the way to get it. Apply that diagnostic discipline in every scene below. Do NOT apply the version of that exercise where the pitch's persuasiveness matters more than its truth — everything you write must be verifiable against the source content given in each scene. The strongest move available to you here is radical honesty: naming, without embarrassment, that this fraternity does not solicit. That restraint is itself the most credible thing you can put in front of this specific audience — use it as a persuasion asset, not something to work around.

QUOTATION DISCIPLINE

Use each exact quotation given below verbatim and no others. Do not add quotations of your own invention or additional lines "in the spirit of" a source. Everything not in quotation marks below is paraphrase — render it in your own original wording on the poster, not as a further quotation.

AUDIENCE

Master Masons (3°) at a Masonic educational convention. Fraternal, adult, self-selected — they came to this session. Do not include or imply ritual secrets, modes of recognition, passwords, or esoteric working content.

SCENE 0 — COLD OPEN (small header panel)

Visual: a single Master Mason in apron, standing before a temple facade still wrapped in scaffolding at dusk — construction clearly unfinished.

The want this answers: unresolved narrative. A story we were told is complete, revealed to be incomplete, is difficult for the mind to leave alone.

Copy direction: open with a direct question to the reader, in your own words, built on this fact — his Third Degree is a real, complete, and honored degree, but the published body of American Masonic ritual continues past it in three additional chartered Bodies. Do not overstate this into "your degree isn't enough" – that would be false and it would also be bad persuasion to this audience, who will know better.

SCENE 1 – SYMBOLIC CRAFT LODGE (the foundation – treat as a full scene, not a footnote)

The want this answers: integrity / not being oversold. Lead with radical honesty before asking for anything.

Required exact quote (12 words) – use once, here only:

"there is no Masonic degree more important than that of Master Mason"

(Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction, USA, "There's More to Masonry Than 3 Degrees")

Governing metaphor for this scene and the next: hue, not hierarchy. State explicitly, in your own words, that the Bodies beyond the Blue Lodge do not intend to replace the fullness of the Symbolic Craft Lodge – they function like different hues of a single color, each adding depth and richness rather than correcting or superseding what came before. Everything from Scene 2 onward should read as a new hue of the same color, not a higher rung replacing a lower one. Copy direction: state plainly that nothing in this poster asks him to outgrow his Third Degree – only to continue seeing the same story in a fuller spectrum of light.

SCENE 2 – CHAPTER OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS (Capitular Masonry)

The want this answers: being undervalued, and the hope of vindication. Many men carry a private sense of having been passed over somewhere in life.

Required exact quote (14 words) – use once, here only:

"there is ONE who will make the rejected stone the Head of the Corner"

("York Rite Bodies of Higher Learning in Ancient Craft Masonry")

Copy direction: connect the Mark Master's lesson (the workman's stone, rejected, becomes the capstone) directly to that private hope, in your own words. Name this scene as the first new hue promised in Scene 1 – not a correction of the Blue Lodge experience, a deepening of it. Note, paraphrasing only (do not quote further from this same source), that Royal Arch Masonry is traditionally presented as the completion of the Blue Lodge's story and is called "Exaltation."

SCENE 3 – COUNCIL OF ROYAL & SELECT MASTERS (Cryptic Masonry)

The want this answers: the pleasure of being let in on something – of finally having context that makes earlier experience make sense in hindsight.

No new quotation in this scene – paraphrase only, citing "York Rite Bodies of Higher Learning in Ancient Craft Masonry" for the underlying content: the Council's degrees are set chronologically before events the man already witnessed in the Third Degree and the Royal Arch, and are presented as necessary to a correct understanding of both.

Copy direction, in your own words: frame the Council as the moment earlier scenes he thought he understood suddenly deepen.

SCENE 4 – COMMANDERY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR (Chivalric Masonry)

The want this answers: identity – the pull to become someone, not just to know something. Note for accuracy: petitioners must profess faith in the Christian religion; keep that requirement visible on the poster, not buried.

Required exact quote (13 words) – use once, here only:

"Reminders of He who suffered upon the Cross are impressed upon the mind"

("Why Be a York Rite Mason? Use a Timeline to Explain")

Copy direction: in your own words, present Knighthood as a change of identity, not an addition to a resume – a man who commits to defend the weak and the innocent, in a lineage that traces itself to actual Crusading-era orders.

SCENE 5 – SUMMIT / CLOSE (the ask that isn't an ask – and the honest second reason)

Required exact quote (9 words) – use once, here only:

"Great men reach the summit. Your journey starts here!"

("OYRB Journey" chart)

Copy direction, in your own words: close in three honest movements, not one.

- (a) Name the paradox directly – this fraternity will not chase him, and that is exactly why the invitation is worth taking seriously.
- (b) State the second, institutional reason plainly instead of hiding it: paraphrasing, not quoting, Program for Progress's own reasoning that a Chapter's health depends on members choosing to stay engaged and new men choosing to affiliate – say outright, in your own words, that the Fraternity's continued capacity to do its work (support its members, sustain its charities, keep its historic institutions and youth programs running) depends on capable men choosing to carry it forward, and that this is part of why he is being asked, not a hidden reason behind a different one.
- (c) PERSONAL TESTIMONY LINE (attribute by name; this is NOT an MLA-cited fact and must not be presented as a study result or given a percentage): render, in the presenter's own voice and clearly marked on the poster as his personal observation, something to this effect – "In [Presenter Name]'s two decades serving on six Masonic membership committees, the men who go on to serve the Craft longest are consistently the men who went further into it." Do not attach any number to this line. Do not attribute it to "a study," "research," or any named organization other than the presenter himself. If the presenter later locates and provides the specific Masonic Renewal Committee (or other) source document behind the statistic he has in mind, replace this line with a properly MLA-cited factual claim instead – testimony is the honest placeholder, not the permanent preference, when a real source exists to find.

End with a plain instruction, not a pitch: "Ask a York Rite Mason how to begin your petition."

VISUAL DIRECTION

- Six panels read left to right or bottom to top as an ascending path (staircase, timeline, or architectural climb), consistent with the visual language of Master Prompt 1.
- Reuse the color key from the verified Equivalency Charts: Lodge = cyan, Chapter = red, Council = purple, Commandery = black.
- Iconography per scene: Scene 1 unfinished scaffolding/cornerstone; Scene 2 the rejected ashlar becoming a keystone; Scene 3 an ark/vault motif; Scene 4 the Passion Cross and Maltese Cross. All original line art – do not copy any jurisdiction's registered seal or logo.
- Do not depict ritual scenes, candidates mid-ceremony, or working props from any degree's esoteric ceremony.

FACTUAL / ETHICAL GUARDRAILS

- Do not use manufactured urgency, false scarcity, or countdown-style pressure language anywhere on this poster. This fraternity does not solicit; the poster should not either.
- Do not add any quotation beyond the five (across this whole prompt) given above, and do not exceed the exact wording given for each.
- If asked to make any scene "hit harder," intensify through specificity and emotional honesty (sharper detail, a more precise want) – not through pressure tactics, invented statistics, or overstated claims.
- Never present a motive to the audience that differs from the real motive behind the campaign. If a reason for joining is true and relevant (including institutional reasons – the Fraternity benefits from capable, active members), state it openly in Scene 5 rather than concealing it behind only the personal-growth appeals in Scenes 1–4. A hidden second agenda is not persuasion, it is a trust risk with an audience this discerning.
- Do not attach specific statistics (retention percentages, average years of service, etc.) to any claim unless a verifiable, citable source is provided for this campaign. None currently is. The presenter's own committee-service testimony (Scene 5c) may be used, attributed to him by name and framed as personal observation – not as a statistic, a study, or research.
- Reference, in your own words and without quoting further: the Declaration of Principles states plainly that "[Masonry's] only secrets are in its methods of recognition and of symbolic instruction" (Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Virginia, Program for Progress) – meaning everything on this poster is meant to be exactly as open as that sentence claims.

DELIVERABLES

1. A full poster-ready copy deck, scene by scene, for proofreading before any image is generated – including a visible list of the five quotations used, each attributed, so they can be checked against the Works Cited list below before printing.
2. After approval, one generated poster image using the approved copy and visual direction.

TONE

High-conviction, direct, unhurried. Confident enough in the material that it never needs to raise its voice.

Delivery notes for the presenter (not for the AI — for you at the podium)

Your own Ambassador's Compass material (written for Scottish Rite ambassadors, but the practice transfers directly) gives better "recruiter traits" than generic sales training would, because it's built for exactly this kind of non-solicitous fraternal context:

- Keep any spoken pitch to 10-12 minutes. Attention drops fast past that mark; the source material notes that even casual online viewing habits rarely hold past a few seconds, and recommends switching visuals often to keep men engaged (Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction, USA, Ambassador's Compass Handbook).
- The real work happens one-on-one, after the formal talk ends — not during it. Plan to stay in the room after your remarks rather than leaving promptly.
- Follow up fast and personally. Contact within a day or two, in the format the man actually prefers (call, text, or email), matters more than anything said from the podium.
- Answer; don't chase. If a man doesn't ask, the material is explicit that the honor (or the invitation) should not be pushed on him.

MASTER PROMPT 2 — THE SCOTTISH RITE JOURNEY (4° SECRET MASTER → 32° MASTER OF THE ROYAL SECRET, SOUTHERN JURISDICTION, USA)

ROLE

You are a Masonic educator and senior infographic/poster designer specializing in fraternal, architectural, and historical iconography. You have precise knowledge of the Ancient & Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Southern Jurisdiction, USA (SJ), including its four Bodies and thirty-two degrees.

TASK

Design one large-format educational poster that visually maps a Master Mason's journey through the Scottish Rite (SJ) – from the 3rd Degree (Master Mason) he already holds, through the 32°, Master of the Royal Secret. This poster will be displayed at a Masonic educational convention and used by a keynote speaker teaching Master Masons who have not yet joined the Scottish Rite. Its purpose is twofold:

1. EDUCATE – accurately map the structure, sequence, and meaning of each Body and degree.
2. ENTICE – create a genuine, dignified desire to petition and continue the journey.

AUDIENCE

Master Masons (3°) in good standing. Most know the Blue Lodge well but know little or nothing about the Scottish Rite. This is a fraternal, adult, educated audience – not the general public. Do NOT include or imply any ritual secrets, modes of recognition, passwords, obligations, or esoteric working content. Stay strictly at the level of structure, history, and the publicly taught thematic content already used in official Supreme Council / Valley new-member literature.

POSTER SPECS

- Target size: 24" x 36", portrait orientation (adjust if your print vendor specifies otherwise).
- Legible from 6–8 feet away: large headline, short body copy, high contrast.
- Deliver as a single cohesive composition, not a slide with bullet text pasted on.

IMPORTANT NOMENCLATURE NOTE

The journey begins at the 4°, which is named Secret Master – NOT "Perfect Master." Perfect Master is the 5°. Use the correct name at each station below; do not substitute or rename any degree.

CONTENT ARCHITECTURE

Present the journey as four ascending stations/terraces, one per Body, using exactly this structure and these degree names (Southern Jurisdiction nomenclature – do not substitute Northern Masonic Jurisdiction names or numbering):

OPENING FRAME

"You Are Here: Master Mason, 3° – the foundation already held.

STATION 1 – LODGE OF PERFECTION (4°–14°)

Theme: "The Perfection Degrees – Building the Inner Temple"

List each with a one-line theme:

- 4° Secret Master – fidelity and trust in small, hidden things.
- 5° Perfect Master – diligence and honoring faithful service.
- 6° Confidential Secretary – loyalty and discretion.
- 7° Provost and Judge – impartial justice.
- 8° Intendant of the Building – order and responsibility in oversight.
- 9° Elu of the Nine – zeal against treachery, tempered by lawful process.
- 10° Elu of the Fifteen – justice pursued through right authority, not vengeance.
- 11° Elu of the Twelve (Sublime Elect) – reward for faithful, disinterested service.
- 12° Master Architect – the builder's virtues: precision, planning, integrity of design.
- 13° Royal Arch of Solomon (or of Enoch) – the recovery of what was hidden and preserved.
- 14° Perfect Elu (Grand Elect Perfect and Sublime Mason) – "Perfection" attained; historically marked by presentation of the Ring of the 14°.

STATION 2 – CHAPTER OF ROSE CROIX (15°–18°)

Theme: "Faith Under Trial – The Rose Blooming Upon the Cross"

- 15° Knight of the East or of the Sword – perseverance through hardship and exile.
- 16° Prince of Jerusalem – courage in rebuilding after loss.
- 17° Knight of East and West – the pursuit of true knowledge across ages and faiths.
- 18° Knight (Sovereign Prince) Rose Croix – Faith, Hope, and Charity; sacrifice for the good of humanity, symbolized by the rose upon the cross.

STATION 3 – COUNCIL OF KADOSH (19°–30°)

Theme: "Consecrated Knighthood – Courage and Conscience"

- 19° Grand Pontiff
- 20° Grand Master of All Symbolic Lodges (Master ad Vitam)
- 21° Noachite or Prussian Knight
- 22° Knight of the Royal Axe (Prince of Libanus)
- 23° Chief of the Tabernacle
- 24° Prince of the Tabernacle
- 25° Knight of the Brazen Serpent
- 26° Prince of Mercy (Scottish Trinitarian)
- 27° Knight (Grand) Commander of the Temple
- 28° Knight of the Sun (Prince Adept)
- 29° Scottish Knight of St. Andrew
- 30° Knight Kadosh (Knight of the White and Black Eagle) – the word Kadosh means "holy," "consecrated," "set apart"; this series presents philosophical and chivalric lessons on religious devotion and heroic courage, and closes the series before the Consistory.

(List all twelve on the poster; a single unifying banner theme is sufficient – do not force a distinct one-line moral onto every individual degree if space does not allow it.)

STATION 4 – CONSISTORY OF MASTERS OF THE ROYAL SECRET (31°–32°)

Theme: "Mastery of Self, Mastery of the Craft"

- 31° (Grand) Inspector Inquisitor (Commander)
- 32° Master (Sublime Prince) of the Royal Secret – the summit: the Rite's philosophy that one must master himself as well as the accumulated lessons of Freemasonry.

SUMMIT MARKER

"32°, Master of the Royal Secret" – the Scottish Rite's capstone reached.

BEYOND THE SUMMIT (small secondary panel, clearly marked as honors, NOT further degrees to petition for)

- 32° Knight Commander of the Court of Honour (KCCH)
- 33° – in its three forms: Inspector General Honorary, Grand Cross of the Court of Honour, and Sovereign Grand Inspector General

State explicitly on the poster: these are honors bestowed by nomination and vote of the Supreme Council, not degrees earned by petition or proficiency. Do not present them as "the next step" in the same way the 4°–32° ladder is presented.

FOOTER / CALL TO ACTION

Close with a dignified, earned line in this register (write an original line, do not fabricate attribution) evoking self-mastery completed and a fuller understanding of the Craft, paired with a plain instruction: "Ask a Scottish Rite Mason how to begin your petition to the Valley."

VISUAL DIRECTION

- Central metaphor: four ascending chambers or terraces, echoing the architectural names of the Bodies (Lodge, Chapter, Council, Consistory).
- Color-code the four stations distinctly but harmoniously (e.g., Lodge of Perfection in purple and gold; Rose Croix in red, black, and white for the rose and cross; Kadosh in black and white; Consistory in purple, gold, and white) – these are common but not universal associations; verify against current SJ style guidance before final print.
- A subtle double-headed eagle motif may anchor the composition as a general, ancient symbol – but render it as ORIGINAL artwork. Do not reproduce the Supreme Council, SJ's specific - registered eagle mark, seal, or logo.

- Do not depict ritual scenes, candidates mid-ceremony, or specific working props from any degree's esoteric ceremony. Use only symbols long published in open Masonic literature.
- Typography: a dignified serif for headlines, a clean sans-serif for body copy, legible at poster distance. With 32 degrees to represent, favor a clean grid or terraced timeline over dense paragraph text – one short phrase per degree, not a full sentence, except at the four Station themes and the Summit Marker.

FACTUAL GUARDRAILS

- Use only the degree names, numbers, and Body groupings given above (Southern Jurisdiction).
- Do not rename 4° as "Perfect Master" – that is 5°.
- Do not present 32° KCCH or the 33° as petitionable degrees; they are bestowed honors.
- Do not invent dates, statistics, or membership numbers.
- Do not quote or closely paraphrase ritual, obligation, or password language from any source.

DELIVERABLES

1. A full poster-ready copy deck (every headline, body line, and caption, organized by section exactly as above) for me to proofread before any image is generated.
2. After I approve the copy, one generated poster image at the specified dimensions using the approved copy and the visual direction above.
3. A short paragraph explaining your color, layout, and iconography choices.

TONE

Confident, warm, dignified, and slightly more contemplative than a chivalric-order poster would be – this Rite's summit is self-mastery and philosophical completeness, not knighthood. Avoid hype language. Prefer earned, historically grounded appeals: this is where the Blue Lodge's questions are answered in full.

MASTER PROMPT 3 – THE LEADER'S CHEAT SHEET (RANK & HONOUR CROSS- REFERENCE HANDOUT)

A companion takeaway handout, not a poster. Same visual family as Prompts 1 and 2 – attendees who saw the posters on the wall should recognize this in their hand. Unlike Prompts 1 and 2, this piece is a reference tool, not an enticement piece: the tone is “quick lookup,” not “call to adventure.”

The cross-reference data below has been verified directly against your two Equivalency Charts (read from the source images, not the raw text layer, which garbled the multi-row table). Give ChatGPT this data as-is — do not let it re-derive or guess the table.

ROLE

You are a Masonic educator and information-design specialist. You produce clean, dense, highly legible reference tables and ladder diagrams for fraternal audiences.

TASK

Design a two-sided 11" x 17" (tabloid) handout, landscape orientation, that lets a Master Mason find, at a glance, "what is the Scottish Rite equivalent of my York Rite rank?" and vice versa. Side A is the Rank Ladder. Side B is the Honours Ladder. This is a companion piece to two convention posters (York Rite journey, Scottish Rite journey) already produced – match their color key exactly so the full set reads as one family of materials.

AUDIENCE

Master Masons attending a Masonic educational convention, including current York Rite and Scottish Rite officers who will use this as a working reference during and after the session. Assume fraternal literacy – no need to explain what a Grand Lodge is – but do not assume familiarity with the correspondences between the two Rites' terminology.

COLOR KEY (use exactly – sourced from the presenter's own reference charts)

- Symbolic (Blue) Lodge: cyan / light blue
- Chapter (York Rite) and Lodge of Perfection (Scottish Rite): shown in the SAME row-tier, but Chapter is red-keyed and Lodge of Perfection is cyan-keyed per the source chart – apply colors per column below, not per Rite:
 - Lodge column: cyan
 - Chapter column: red
 - Council column: purple
 - Commandery column: black
 - Lodge of Perfection column: cyan
 - Chapter of Rose+Croix column: red

- Council of Kadosh column: purple
- Consistory of Masters of the Royal Secret column: black

(Yes – the Craft-side and Scottish-Rite-side columns use a matching cyan/red/purple/black sequence. This is intentional in the source material and should be preserved; it visually teaches that the two Rites run in parallel.)

SIDE A – THE RANK LADDER (verified data – transcribe faithfully, do not alter wording)

Group the middle four under a banner "YORK RITE" and the last four under a banner "ANCIENT & ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE, SOUTHERN JURISDICTION, USA."

Render as a vertical ladder of rungs, each rung a labeled row, reading bottom-to-top as ascending rank (mirror the "climbing" visual language of the two posters):

Rung 1, "Degree / Order Attained":

Lodge: 3° Master Mason | Chapter: Royal Arch Mason | Council: Select Master / Super Excellent Master | Commandery: Knight Templar | Lodge of Perfection: 14° Perfect Elu | Rose+Croix: 18° Knight Rose+Croix | Kadosh: 30° Knight Kadosh | Consistory: 32° Master of the Royal Secret

Rung 2, "Presiding Officer, Local Body":

Worshipful Master | Excellent High Priest | Illustrious Master | Eminent Commander | Venerable Master | Wise Master | Commander | Master of Kadosh

Rung 3, "Local Unit":

Lodge: District (led by a Deputy District Grand Master) – Chapter/Council/Commandery: no separate named tier here in the source chart – Scottish Rite: Valley (the SINGLE local body that confers all four SR degree series; call this out in a small annotation, since it has no one-to-one York Rite equivalent – see the structural note below).

Rung 4, "State-Level Deputy/Representative":

Scottish Rite only at this tier: Personal Representative to the SGIG / Deputy of the Orient. (Leave York Rite side blank at this rung – the source chart does not show an equivalent.)

Rung 5, "Grand Body, State Level":

Grand Lodge | Grand Chapter | Grand Council | Grand Commandery | (Scottish Rite: Orient – the state-level administrative division)

Rung 6, "Grand / Presiding Officer, State Level":

Most Worshipful Grand Master | Most Excellent Grand High Priest | Most Illustrious Grand Master | Right Eminent Grand Commander | Sovereign Grand Inspector General / Deputy of the Region

Rung 7, "Regional / Departmental Unit and Officer":

Chapter: Region, led by the Right Excellent Deputy General Grand High Priest | Council: Region, led by the Right Puissant Deputy General Grand Master | Commandery: Department, led by the Right Eminent Department Commander | Scottish Rite: Region (Lodge column: blank – U.S. Grand Lodges have no national umbrella body, so this tier does not apply to the Craft)

Rung 8, "National / International Body":

Chapter: General Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, International | Council: General Grand Council of Cryptic Masons, International | Commandery: Grand Encampment of Knights Templar, U.S.A. | Scottish Rite: The Supreme Council (Mother Council of the World) of the Inspectors General Knights Commander of the House of the Temple of Solomon of the Thirty-third Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America.

Rung 9 (top), "National / International Presiding Officer":

Chapter: Most Excellent General Grand High Priest | Council: Most Puissant General Grand Master | Commandery: Most Eminent Grand Master | Scottish Rite: Sovereign Grand Commander

STRUCTURAL NOTE (include as a callout box on Side A, not buried in the ladder):

"A York Rite Mason typically holds separate membership in three distinct chartered bodies – Chapter, Council, and Commandery. A Scottish Rite Mason holds membership in one local body, the Valley, which confers all four degree series (Lodge of Perfection through Consistory). The two Rites are organized differently at the local level even where their upper ranks correspond."

SIDE B – THE HONOURS LADDER (verified data – transcribe faithfully, do not alter wording)

Same eight-column header as Side A. Add a note under the Scottish Rite banner: "All Scottish Rite honours are nominated and voted upon at the Biennial Session of the Supreme Council. York Rite and Blue Lodge honours follow each Grand Body's own nomination process." On the Scottish Rite side, honours form a SINGLE ladder (not one column per Body) – lay this out as one merged column spanning the four SR body-columns, clearly distinguished from the four separate York Rite honour columns.

Tier 1 (entry honour, local/body level):

Lodge: Golden Trowel / Hiram Award | Chapter: Keystone Award | Council: Ish Sodi Award |
Commandery: Meritorious Service Award | Scottish Rite: 32° Knight Commander of the Court of Honour (KCCH)

Tier 2:

Lodge: (no higher tier – the Golden Trowel/Hiram Award is the Blue Lodge's only honour level;
note this explicitly rather than leaving the cell visually empty) | Chapter: Distinguished Service Award, Bronze | Council: "Most Illustrious Grand Master" honour (transcribed exactly as titled in the source chart) | Commandery: Knight Commander of the Temple | Scottish Rite: 33°
Inspector General (Honourary)

Tier 3:

Chapter: Distinguished Service Award, Silver | Council: Columbian Award | Commandery: Knight
Templar Cross of Honour | Scottish Rite: 33° Knight Grand Cross of the Court of Honour

Tier 4 (highest pure honour):

Chapter: Distinguished Service Award, Gold / Ephraim Kirby Award | Council: Order of the Secret
Vault | Commandery: Knight Grand Cross of the Temple | Scottish Rite: no higher tier at this level – note explicitly: "The Active 33°, Sovereign Grand Inspector General, is a working office/rank, not an honour – see Side A, Rung 9."

FOOTER (Side B, paraphrase, do not quote any single source verbatim):

Explain in your own words that this table reflects the highest honours obtainable within each body; that nominations are typically brought before a Dean of the College of Honours within that body; and that each college ballots on nominees according to its own rules.

VISUAL DIRECTION

- Landscape 11" x 17", one ladder per side, legible when folded to 8.5" x 11" for pocket/binder carry.
- Use the color key exactly as specified above for column headers and rung bands.
- Typography: a dense but legible tabular layout – this is a working reference, not a poster; prioritize scan-ability over drama. A clean sans-serif throughout is appropriate here, unlike the more ornamental headline treatment used on the two posters.
- Do not add ritual imagery, ceremonial scenes, or reproduce any jurisdiction's registered seal/logo. Simple rank insignia or jewel silhouettes (rendered as original line art) are fine as small column-header icons if space allows.

FACTUAL GUARDRAILS

- Transcribe every title, award name, and body name exactly as given above – these have been verified against the presenter's own reference charts. Do not simplify, rename, reorder, or "clean up" any title, even if it looks redundant or unusual (e.g., the Council's "Most Illustrious Grand Master" honour name is correct as given and should not be merged with the identically named officer title on Side A).
- Where a cell has no equivalent (noted "blank" or "no higher tier" above), show that explicitly (e.g., "No national body" or "No higher tier") rather than leaving a confusing empty box.

DELIVERABLES

1. A full text layout of both sides (every rung, label, and note) for proofreading before any image is generated.
2. After approval, two generated images – Side A and Side B – at 11" x 17" landscape, using the approved copy and the color key above.

TOPE

Clear, orderly, reference-grade. This piece should feel like a well-kept ledger a Grand Secretary would be proud of – not a recruiting piece.

OPEN ITEM

Prompts 1 and 2 used a placeholder color guess, flagged for your review. Prompt 3 uses your charts' actual cyan/red/purple/black key. If you'd like, I can backport that same key into Prompts 1 and 2 so all three pieces share one consistent palette at the convention.
