Chivalric Masonry: Commandery of Knights Templar

[This Body is both independent and yet a part of the York Rite. Members must be in good standing with Lodge, Chapter, and Council; or have just received the degrees of Chapter, and Council - in order to receive the Orders conferred by a Commandery. Additionally, this is one of the few instances where members make a declaration of faith. While a denomination is not requested to be named; all Sir Knights are members of one of the many Christian faiths or practices.]

A Cryptic Mason [Member in Good Standing] (Companion) is:

- Created and Constituted a Knight of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross
- Admitted a Knight of the Order of St. Paul (or the Mediterranean Pass) [the Mediterranean Pass is not considered an Order, but rather a "Passing Degree"]
- Admitted a Knight of the Ancient Order of St. John of Jerusalem (or the Order of Malta)
- Created and Constituted Knight of the Order of the Temple [Knight Templar]

Each state or Jurisdiction is designated an "Orient" and is headed by a Sovereign Grand Inspector General, or a Deputy of the Supreme Council. This official's tenure is for an indefinite period.

Operating within an Orient are the bodies that carry out the activities of the Rite in a number of locations. These locations are designated "Valleys", such as "Valley of Salt Lake."

The larger valleys have four Bodies, the title of the presiding officer, and the degrees under the auspices of each are:

"The Supreme Council (Mother Council of the World) of the Inspectors General Knights Commander of the House of the Temple of Solomon of the Thirty-third Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America."
