TITLE I
CONSTITUTION OF THE GRAND COMMANDERY

Section 1-1 POWERS AND DUTIES

The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Utah derives its power from a certain Charter, issued August 10, 1910 by the Grand Encampment.*Section 33

Section 1-2 TITLE

The name of this Grand Commandery shall be "The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Utah".

Section 1-3 SEAL OF THE GRAND COMMANDERY

The Seal of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Utah is illustrated below.

Section 1-4 JURISDICTION ADDED MAY 1990

The jurisdiction of this Grand Commandery shall be the territory comprising the State of Utah, within which territory it is the superior authority in Templar Masonry, subject only to the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America, and the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge F. & A.M. of Utah.

Section 1-5 LAWS AND REGULATIONS

It shall have the power to adopt and amend, by two-thirds vote of those present and voting, a Constitution and such Laws and Regulations, not inconsistent with the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment, or the Code of the Grand Lodge F. & A.M. of Utah, as may be necessary for the good of the Order.

Section 1-6 NEW COMMANDERIES

It shall have exclusive power to form new Commanderies within its jurisdiction and that without the recommendation or consent of any Commandery, and to fix the fees therefore; and it shall have power to ordain and prescribe regulations for their government, and it may revoke any existing charter or dispensation.

Section 1-7 ASSESSMENTS

It shall possess authority to require from the several Commanderies within its jurisdiction, such proportion of the sums received by them for conferring the Orders, and also such sums in the form of Annual dues from the respective members, as may be necessary for the support of the Grand Commandery.

Section 1-8 GENERAL POWERS

It shall consider and do all matters and things appertaining to the good, well-being and perpetuation of Templar Masonry, but always subordinate to the Grand Encampment of the United States of America.

Section 1-9 CONTROVERSIES

It shall have power to assign the limits of jurisdiction of Commanderies within its own jurisdiction, and settle all controversies that may arise between them.

Section 1-10 REPORTS

The Grand Commandery, at its annual Conclave, shall review and consider all the official reports of its officers, and the proceedings of its constituent Commanderies for the preceding year.

Section 1-11 ACCOUNTS

It shall examine the accounts of the Grand Treasurer and Grand Recorder, and supervise the state and condition of the finances, and adopt such measures in relation thereto, as may be necessary to increase, secure and preserve the same, and also to insure the utmost punctuality on the part of every accounting officer in the safekeeping and paying over of the funds and property of the Grand Commandery.

Section 1-12 AMENDMENTS

The Grand Commandery, upon the concurrence of two-thirds of its members present and voting at any Annual or Special Conclave, may revise, amend and alter this Constitution, provided, however, that a written copy of the motion so to amend or alter shall be filed with the Grand Recorder of the Grand Commandery at least forty-five (45) days before the day on which the Conclave is to be held at which such motion is to be considered, and copy thereof shall be inserted in the Notice of the Conclave and presented by the Grand Recorder to the Grand Commandery for consideration.

TITLE II

- The Grand Captain of the Guard

The first four (4) together with the Treasurer and Recorder shall be elected by ballot and the others shall be appointed by the Grand Commander.

- (B) All Past Grand Commanders
- All Past Deputy Grand Commanders
- All Past Grand Generalissimos and
- All Past Grand Captains General, of this Grand Commandery, so long as they remain in good standing of Commanderies in good standing under this jurisdiction.

- (C) The Commander
- The Generalissimo and
- The Captain General of each Commandery in good standing under this Grand Commandery.

- (D) All Past Commanders of the Commanderies under this Grand Commandery, and such Past Commanders as may have demitted from another jurisdiction and who shall have been elected to membership by any Commandery in this Grand Jurisdiction, so long as they remain members of Commanderies under this jurisdiction.

- (E) All Knights Templar of other Grand Commanderies who have been elected Honorary Members. Such membership shall not confer the right to vote.

Section 2-2 TITLES

The honorary title of a Grand Commander is Right Eminent and the official title is Grand Commander. The honorary title of the Deputy Grand Commander is Very Eminent and official title is Deputy Grand Commander. The honorary title of the remaining officers of a Grand Commandery is Eminent.

Section 2-3 CONCLAVES APPROVED MAY 2006

(A) The Annual Conclave of this Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Utah shall be held during the Annual Sessions of the Grand York Rite Bodies of Utah who convene on the Second Friday and the following Saturday in May. The Time and Place of the Annual Conclave shall be determined during these sessions.

(B) There will be a Joint Session held with the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Utah, and Grand Council Cryptic Masons of Utah. The Sessions will be opened by the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Utah (starting in 2006) then rotated each year in turn with the Grand Chapter, Grand Council and Grand Commandery.

(C) The Joint Sessions will be opened at 9:00 am on Friday to conduct joint business.

Section 2-4 SPECIAL CONCLAVES

Special Conclaves may be called by the Grand Commander, and it shall be his duty, upon the request of a majority of the Commanderies, directed to him in writing, to call a Special Conclave. No business shall be transacted at a Special Conclave except that specified in the original notice or summons.

Section 2-5 QUORUM

A quorum shall consist of nine (9) members entitled to vote therein, including an officer authorized to convene the same, provided three or more Commanderies are represented.

Section 2-6 RULES OF ORDER

Rule 1: When the Grand Commandery has assembled, the Grand Recorder shall call the roll and if a constitutional number of members are present, the Grand Commandery shall be convened.

Rule 2: After the roll call, the proceedings of the preceding Conclave shall be read by the Grand Recorder, unless their reading is dispensed with; the Grand Commander shall announce the standing and session committees, to whom all papers then in the hands of the Grand Recorder, requiring such reference, shall at once be referred; the reports of the Grand Commander, Deputy Grand Commander, Grand Generalissimo, Grand Captain General, Grand Recorder, and Grand Treasurer shall then be presented and appropriately referred, in the order named.

Rule 3: After the business of the Conclave is thus begun, the regular order of each session during its continuance shall be as follows:

1st - Reading of the minutes of the last session.

2nd - Reception and action upon, or reference of, petitions, memorials and appeals.

3rd - Reports of Standing and Session Committees, and action thereon, the Committee on Jurisprudence having the preference.

4th - Motions, resolutions and other business.

Rule 4: All reports, petitions, memorials or appeals presented shall be in writing and in triplicate and shall be read before any action is taken thereon.

Rule 5: No motion to reconsider shall be entertained unless made during the same session when the question proposed to be reconsidered was decided and unless offered by one who voted with the majority upon the question.

Rule 6: When the day and hour shall have been named for the election of Grand Officers, such election shall, at that time, take precedence over all other business, unless the Grand Commandery, by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting, shall otherwise direct. The final report of the Committee on Credentials shall be read before balloting proceeds.

Rule 7: At every Conclave, unless otherwise expressly provided by the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment, all questions (except amendments to these statutes) shall be determined by a majority vote of those present and voting. In case the votes are equally divided, the presiding officer shall cast the deciding vote.

Rule 8: Whenever the Commander, Generalissimo or Captain General of a Constituent Commandery is unable to be present at the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery, each of them may appoint a member of such Commandery to represent them at the Annual Conclave and the proxy so appointed shall be entitled to all privileges of the Officer who so appoints him. Such Proxies shall on or before the first session of the day of the Conclave at which the proxy is to be used, file the same with the Grand Recorder or with the Committee on Credentials. If any one of the three officers first mentioned is present, he may, without a written proxy, vote for the absentees. If two are present, the highest ranking officer shall vote for the absentee.

The voting by proxy shall conform to Section 38 of the Constitution and Statues of the Grand Encampment and the decision of John Quincy Adams Fallon, GM (1874).

Rule 9: These rules may be suspended and may at any time be amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

Rule 10: Robert's "Rules of Order Revised" will govern the parliamentary procedure, if not contrary to the laws of this Grand Commandery.

Section 2-7 THE GRAND COMMANDER

AMENDED MAY 1993

The Grand Commander shall exercise a watchful supervision over all the Commanderies under his jurisdiction and see that the Constitution, Statutes and Rituals of the Grand Encampment, and the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Commandery, are duly and promptly observed.

(A) At each Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery, the Grand Commander shall present his Annual address, giving an account of his official acts during recess and the condition of Templar Masonry in this jurisdiction and recommend to the Grand Commandery such measures as he may deem necessary and expedient. On recommendations affecting Grand Commandery will be presented as a resolution, with proper time limitations for proposals and resolutions. A copy of this address shall be placed in the hands of the Committee on Division and Reference at least ten days before the Annual Conclave.

*Section 48

(B) He shall appoint all committees and all officers not made elective, and shall fill all vacancies which may occur in any of the elective offices, to serve during the pleasure of the Grand Commander, or until their successors shall have been elected and installed.

(C) He shall have the power and authority during the recess of the Grand Commandery, to grant Letters of Dispensation. Any such Dispensation shall be in force no longer than the next Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery.

(D) He may during the recess of the Grand Commandery, arrest the Charter or, Dispensation of a Commandery, or suspend from the functions of his office any officer of the Grand Commandery or of a Constituent Commandery, but in no case shall such suspension affect the standing in the Order of such officer or his membership in the Commandery. The Grand Commander shall report his action in full to the next Conclave of the Grand Commandery for its final action.

(E) He may visit and preside in any Commandery within the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery and give such instructions and directions as the good of the Order may require, always adhering to the Constitution, Statutes and Rituals of the Grand Encampment and the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Commandery.

(F) He may from time to time appoint Past Grand Commanders, officers of the Grand Commandery or Past Commanders to represent this Grand Commandery within sister Grand Jurisdictions, such appointees shall be known as Grand Representatives and serve at the pleasure of the Grand Commander or until a successor is appointed.

(G) He may recommend to the Grand Commanders of sister Grand Jurisdictions, eligible residents of this jurisdiction for appointment as Grand Representative near this Grand Commandery. If such appointees fail to attend three Annual Conclaves and are not excused by the Grand Commander, a replacement shall be recommended

(H) He shall see that the Grand Recorder promptly discharges the duties enjoined by Section 52 of the Statutes of the Grand Encampment.

(I) He may appoint a Grand Inspector General, who shall perform all the duties implied in and pertaining to said office.

(J) The following Session Committees shall be appointed by the Grand Commander to serve at each Annual Conclave, viz.:

Committee on Credentials

Committee on Division and Reference
Committee on Necrology
Committee on Returns of Commanderies
Committee on Unfinished Business

Each Committee shall consist of three or more members and the first named shall be the Chairman. The Grand Commander shall appoint such committees at least forty five days prior to the Annual Conclave and the Grand Recorder shall immediately notify members of the committee of their appointments.

Section 2-8 (A) STANDING COMMITTEES

Before each Annual Conclave adjourns, or within thirty-days thereafter, the grand Commander elected at such Annual Conclave, shall appoint the following:

Standing Committees, viz.

- A Committee on Templar Jurisprudence
- B Committee on Finance
- C Committee on Grievance and Appeals
- D Committee on Knights Templar Educational Foundation

STANDING = A - Z

(A) TEMPLAR JURISPRUDENCE APPROVED MAY 1990

The Committee on Templar Jurisprudence shall be part of a joint committee, known as the Jurisprudence Committee that is made up of a chairman and one each Royal Arch Mason, Cryptic Mason, and Knight Templar. It shall consist of not less than four members. It shall meet prior to the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery and consider all decisions upon questions of Templar Laws and usage reported by the Grand Commander and such other matters as may be referred to it by him or the Grand Commandery, and its conclusion shall be reported to the Grand Commandery. The Committee, when called upon, shall give opinions on the legislative, judicial and executive functions of the Grand Commandery, and the Constituent Commanderies, and on the prerogatives, powers and duties of the officers and members thereof. It shall advise upon all question of Templar Law and report upon all proposed amendments of TITLE I, II, III, IV of the Constitution, Laws, Regulations, and Standard form of by-laws for or pertaining to the Grand Commandery of Utah, or Constituent Commanderies in the jurisdiction of Utah, and all decisions of the Grand Commander as well as his Annual Report.

(B) FINANCE AMENDED MAY 12, 1995

The Finance Committee shall be a Joint Standing Committee of at least four (4) in number including a chairman. With one of the four being elected annually to a four year term. The election of this member shall be determined by a majority vote of the delegates present, held during the Joint portion of the Grand York Rite Sessions. The initial term will be determined by elections of one each 1 year, 2 year, 3 year and 4 year members. The Grand High Priest, Grand Illustrious Master and Grand Commander will be an added part of this committee. The purpose of the committee is to manage the funds of the Grand York Rite Bodies. The actions of this committee shall be determined by majority vote of the finance committee. The ballots are to be counted as one person, one vote. The Grand Secretary-Recorder and Grand Treasurer will be ex-officio members for the purpose of record keeping, minutes, and information with no power to vote on actions of the finance committee.

They may by majority vote appoint a duly qualified outside financial advisor or financial institution for suggestions and advice. The finance committee shall hold and take title to all of the assets and funds of the Grand Chapter, Grand Council and Grand Commandery, with the exception of those funds held by the York Rite of Utah Foundation. They may co-mingle them, as long as they are spread on the books individually, as part of the Grand York Rite Funds except the general operating funds. They may loan and invest funds in such manner as the Grand Chapter, and/or Grand Council, and/or Grand Commandery may request from time to time, or in the absence of such specific direction, to the best of their judgement and ability in securities generally accepted by the Trust department of sound financial institutions. This may include but not be limited to United States Government Bonds, Treasury Bills, or other certificate of indebtedness, State and Municipal Bonds, Savings Accounts and Certificates and Corporate Bonds and Mutual Funds. A portion of these investments should be available in a timely manner transferable to pay the indebtedness of the Grand Chapter, Grand Council and Grand Commandery.

All actions taken by the Finance Committee shall be governed by the prudent man rule and with agreement of the majority. In case of a deadlock the duty shall fall to the Chairman for decisions.

They shall reinvest the interest and dividends or deposit to the General Fund amounts needed as circumstances warrant. They shall make a complete and detailed report of all assets and funds in their possession at each Annual Sessions, and shall annually audit the books of the Grand Recorder and Grand Treasurer, and shall certify their findings at the Joint Portion of the Annual Grand York Rite Sessions.

They will also prepare and submit a budget for the ensuing year for each Grand York Rite body for action at the annual sessions.

Any item or items not covered herein shall be governed by the requirements of the Code and Trial Code of the Grand Lodge, F & A.M. of Utah and Masonic usage.

(C) GRIEVANCE AND APPEALS

APPROVED MAY 1990

The Committee on Grievance and Appeals shall be part of a joint Grand York Rite committee. It shall consist of not less than three members include a chairman which shall be a member of Grand Chapter, Grand Council or Grand Commandery with the other two members coming from the other two Grand bodies. This committee shall investigate all grievances submitted to it and report its conclusions and recommendations. It shall examine all trial records and appeals sent from Constituent Commanderies o Grand Commandery and shall consider and make recommendation to the annual conclave of Grand Commandery on all applications for restoration submitted to Grand Commandery after suspension or expulsion.

This committee shall make known, to any member who has a decision against him, the following sections of the Disciplinary Rules of the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar U.S.A.:

Section 67 through 96 inclusive.

(D) EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION COMMITTEE DIVISION

The Educational Foundation Committee Division of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the State of Utah shall consist of three members, one member to be appointed annually by the Grand Commander elected at such Annual Conclave, for a term of three years. This committee shall be governed by the "Regulations and Standard Practice of the Knights Templar Educational Foundation of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America" and such amendments thereto as are legally adopted from time to time.

This committee may employ a Fiscal Agent as provided in the above "Regulations and Standard Practice" and pay him a monthly salary of fifteen ($15.00) dollars. The Secretary and Treasurer of the Committee shall furnish and deposit with the Grand Commander, Corporate Surety Bond as provided for in Section ten (10) of the above "Regulations and Standard Practice".

(E) FRATERNAL RELATIONS

ADDED MAY 1990

The committee on Fraternal Relations shall be a joint committee, consisting of at least 3 members; 1 each from the separate Grand York Rite bodies, whose duties are to recommend to the presiding officers a Grand Representative to other Grand York Rite jurisdictions. They shall also make a written report on their actions at the Annual Grand York Rite Conclaves.

(F) TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE

ADDED MAY 1990

The committee on Triennial Conclaves shall be a joint committee consisting of at least the three Presiding Grand Heads, who will make a written general report which should include any legislative changes or additions that would affect the Grand York Rite bodies in the State of Utah.

(G) YORK RITE EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

APPROVED MAY 1990 AMMENDED
MAY 2010

The committee on York Rite Educational Foundation will operate under its own Articles of Incorporation and By-laws, but it will be a joint Grand York Rite Committee with 10 members, consisting of three elected, during the Joint Grand York Rite Sessions, the Three Presiding Officers of these bodies, the three second in command of these bodies and the Grand Secretary Recorder. It shall meet just prior to Grand York Rite Sessions and it will make a written report at the York Rite Sessions.

(H) ANNUAL YORK RITE SESSIONS

The committee on the Annual York Rite Sessions will be a joint committee consisting of at least 7 members, including the heads of the Grand York Rite bodies, the heads of the host Constituent York Rite bodies along with the Grand King, Deputy Grand Master, and Deputy Grand Commander with the Grand Secretary/Recorder being the Chairman. He shall render to the Grand Commandery at its Annual Conclave a true and perfect account of his doings in that respect and an account of all moneys received and disbursed by him during the recess. He shall also carefully preserve and render, from time to time, an inventory of all property belonging to the Grand Commandery entrusted to his keeping.

Section 2-13 THE GRAND RECORDER

The Grand Recorder shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment.

*Section 52

Section 2-14 SURETY BOND

The Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary shall furnish Corporate Surety Bond in such form and sum as the Grand Commandery may direct, said Surety Bond to be retained in the custody of the Grand Recorder. The cost of said Bond shall be paid by the Grand Commandery.

Section 2-15 OTHER OFFICERS

AMENDED MAY 1990

The duties of the remaining officers (if duties are not specifically stated hereafter) as well as those above specified, shall be such as are traditionally appropriate to their respective stations, or assigned to them by the Grand Commander or the Grand Commandery, and conforming as near as may be to those of the corresponding officers of the Grand Encampment.

Section 2-16 TENURE OF OFFICE

The several Grand Officers shall hold their respective offices until their successors shall have been duly elected, or appointed and installed.

Section 2-17 ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE

AMENDED MAY 2002

No Knight Templar shall be eligible to any office of the Grand Commandery, except that of Prelate and Sentinel unless he shall be at the time a present or past Commander.

Section 2-18 APPEALS

AMENDED MAY 1991

During a Conclave an appeal may be made to the Grand Commandery from a decision of the Grand Commander. All other times the decisions of the Grand Commander shall have full force and effect, but they must be reviewed by the Grand Commandery at its next annual Conclave. If such decisions involving the Laws of the Grand Encampment or the Laws of the Local Commandery, an appeal lies to the Grand Commandery. An appeal may be taken to the Grand Encampment or the Laws of the Commandery, a sequential appeal should be made by chain of command beginning with the Grand Commandery. An appeal may be taken to the Grand Encampment from any decision or action of a Grand Commandery on questions arising as to the construction or effect of the Constitution, Statutes or Rituals of the Grand Encampment.

Section 2-19 FINANCES

ADDED MAY 1990

The revenue of the Grand Commandery shall be derived from fees and dues charged as follows:

(A) For a Dispensation to form a New Commandery, One Hundred Dollars ($100.00).

(B) For each Order of the Temple conferred, Two Dollars ($2.00) to be paid by the Commandery of which the candidate receiving the Order shall thereupon become a member, provided that no fee shall be due the Grand Commandery for courtesy work done for Commanderies outside of Utah.

(C) Each Constituent Commandery shall remit to the Grand Commandery, at the time of making the Annual Returns, the assessed dues for each Sir Knight who was a member at the close of the fiscal year. For current amount, refer to last date on this subject in TITLE V Standing Resolutions.

(D) For the Knight Templar Eye Foundation, One Dollar ($1.00) per member, or refer to *182 (a) (b) (C).

(E) For the Triennial Fund, Thirty-five cents ($.35) per member.

(F) Such special assessments and fees as the Grand Commandery shall levy.

Section 2-20 REMISSION OF DUES APPROVED MAY 1989

A Commandery may remit all or any part of the dues of any of its members; provided that Grand Commandery dues shall be paid by each Commandery upon all of its members.

Section 2-21 TRIENNIAL FUND RESCINDED MAY 1993

Section 2-22 DRILL REGULATIONS AMENDED MAY 2014

The Drill Regulations and Asylum Ceremonies used in this Grand Commandery and all constituent Commanderies in this jurisdiction shall be the Drill Regulations and Manual of Asylum Ceremonies as published by Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of America. (Ten man openings approved by this Grand Commandery may be used when conditions warrant).

The competitive Drill Regulations promulgated by the Grand Encampment shall be the Drill Regulations for all Competitive Drills.

Section 2-23 UNIFORM SENTENCE ADDED MAY 1990

The Uniform of a Knight Templar of the State of Utah shall be that adopted by this Grand Commandery. Refer to the Code of Knight Templar Uniform Regulations of Utah.

Section 2-24 COMMANDERIES - FORMATION

* 151 - 168 inclusive

Section 2-25 AMENDMENTS AMENDED MAY 1990

All proposed amendments to the Laws relating to Grand Commandery shall be submitted in writing to the Grand Recorder at least forty five days before the next annual communication. At least THIRTY FIVE days before such annual conclave of Grand Commandery the Grand Recorder shall transmit to the Recorders of the several constituent Commanderies of this jurisdiction, and to the members of the Jurisprudence Committee of Grand Commandery, copies of any such proposed amendments.

All proposed amendments shall first be referred to the Committee on Jurisprudence for its opinion and report. Any proposed amendment, ruled by the Committee on Jurisprudence to be "not" in proper form, shall not be placed upon the floor of the annual conclave of the Grand Commandery, for vote, until said amendment shall have been put in proper form. Responsibility for "Proper Form" shall be with the author of the amendment.

The Committee on Jurisprudence shall advise the author, or authors, of proposed amendments, prior to the annual conclave, if such amendments are "not in proper form". If the amendment is then approved in annual convocation by a majority of the votes, then such amendment shall become effective. Grand Commandery may suspend the forgoing provisions by two-thirds vote at the Annual Conclave or a Special Conclave called for such Purpose.

Section 2-26 REFERENCE TO CODE OF GRAND LODGE ADDED MAY 1990

Any item or items not covered herein by the Laws of the Grand Commandery or by the Statutes of the Grand Encampment shall be governed by the requirements of the Code of the Grand Lodge F.& A.M. of Utah.

Section 2-27 STATUTES MUST BE AVAILABLE ADDED MAY 1990

Each Constituent Commandery shall own not less than three copies of the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment, The Laws of the Grand Commandery of Utah, The Code of Knights Templar Uniform Regulations of Utah, and Tactics adopted by this Grand Commandery. One each shall be furnished the Commander, Generalissimo, and Recorder at the time of installation, together with a copy of the By-Laws of the Commandery.

Each Commandery shall own or have access to a copy of the Code of the Grand Lodge F. & A.M. of Utah.

Section 2-28 PROCEEDINGS ADOPTED MAY 2000

A record of the Grand Sessions of the Grand York Rite of Utah shall be printed annually.

A copy of said proceedings shall be sent to Grand Commandery Officers, Dias Officers of Local Chapters and the Office of each Chapter. The above mentioned Proceedings will be at no cost to those receiving them.

TITLE III
REGULATIONS RELATING TO CONSTITUENT COMMANDERIES

Section 3-1 OF WHOM COMPOSED

A Commandery consists of the following officers:

The Commander
The Generalissimo
The Captain General
The Senior Warden
The Junior Warden
The Prelate
The Treasurer
The Recorder
The Standard Bearer
The Sword Bearer

The Warder
The Sentinel and Three Guards

And, of such Knights Templar as may be members thereof, the Commander, Generalissimo, Captain General, Treasurer and Recorder shall be elected by ballot and the remaining officers shall be elected or appointed by the Commander, as may be provided by the By-Laws of the Commandery.

Section 3-2 OBLIGATORY DAYS

The several Commanderies of this Jurisdiction shall assemble on Easter of each year and proceed in a body to such place of public worship as may be designated by the Commander for Divine Worship.

Other similar services may be held in observance of Ascension Sunday and Christmas.

Section 3-3 CONFERRING ORDERS

APPROVED MAY 1995

A Commandery shall not confer the Orders of Knighthood for a less sum than Forty Dollars ($40.00) which shall be paid before the Order of Red Cross is conferred. No application therefore shall be received unless accompanied by such sum.

Section 3-4 CONCLAVES

(A) The stated Conclaves of every Commandery within this Jurisdiction shall be held at least four times a year at such place and hour as may be specified in its Charter or designated in its By-Laws.

(B) Any Commandery failing to hold at least one Conclave annually, forfeits all of its rights as a Commandery; whereupon it's Charter, with all of its property and effects, shall be surrendered to the Grand Commander subject to the order of the Grand Commandery.

8) Special Conclaves may be called by the Commander at his discretion, but no business shall be done at such called Conclaves except making arrangements for the funeral of a deceased Knight or the conferring of the Orders on a postulant previously elected, or that which is specified in the notice or summons.

Section 3-5 QUORUM

A quorum of a Commandery consists of nine (9) members entitled to vote therein, including an Officer authorized to open the same.

*Section 72

Section 3-6 JURISDICTION

Commanderies of this Jurisdiction shall have concurrent jurisdiction throughout the State.

Section 3-7 ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The election of officers of a Chartered Commandery shall be held annually at the stated Conclave provided in its By-Laws and the officers then shall be installed not later than the next regular Conclave of such Chartered Commandery.

Section 3-8 SUCCESSION IN OFFICE

* Section 72

Section 3-9 SPECIAL ELECTION

If a vacancy shall occur in any of the offices, except when there is a right of succession, the Grand Commander may authorize a special election to fill such vacancy upon written request to that effect by the Commandery.

Section 3-10 THE COMMANDER

(A) The Commander has it in special charge to see that the By-Laws and Regulations of the Commandery are duly observed, as well as the Constitution, Laws, Rituals and Rules of the Grand Encampment and the Constitution, Laws, and Regulations of the Grand Commandery, that accurate records are kept and just accounts rendered and that regular returns are made to the Grand Commandery annually and that the dues are paid promptly.

(B) The honorary title of the Commander of a Commandery is Eminent and the official title is Commander.

(C) It is his duty, together with the Generalissimo and Captain General to attend all Conclaves of the Grand Commandery; and it is the duty of these officers to attend the Conclaves of their Commandery.

(D) It is his duty as Commander of a Constituent Commandery to open, conduct and close his Commandery in accordance with the Drill Regulations and Asylum Ceremonies adopted by this Grand Commandery.

Section 3-11 TREASURER

AMENDED MAY 1991

The Treasurer shall perform such duties as are prescribed by the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment, the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Commandery and the By-Laws of the Commandery.

Section 3-12 RECORDER

(A) It is the duty of the Recorder to issue notice of Stated and Special Conclaves; and, in the notices for Special Conclaves, he shall, under the direction of the Commander, state the particular business to be transacted.

(B) He shall also issue summons when directed by the Commander or Commandery.

(C) To record all transactions of the Commandery.

(D) To collect all dues and to use every effort to prevent delinquency. When the dues of any member are delinquent for two years or more, the Commandery may direct the Recorder to notify the delinquent Knight of such fact, and also cite him to appear at a Stated Conclave of the Commandery, fixing the date (which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service) and show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment of dues. The service of such notice may be personal, that is, by delivery to him of a copy, a statement of which service shall be endorsed on the notice and returned to the Commandery duly signed by a Knight Templar. Or such service may be by Certified Mail, return receipt requested, sent by the Recorder.

The service is completed when the Knight receives the copy or when the certified letter is duly mailed, addressed to the delinquent at his last known place of residence. In case of service by Certified Mail, the Recorder shall make a report thereof to the Commandery at the next Stated Conclave. In case of service by either method, the same must be entered of record. If the dues of the delinquent member continue unpaid, and he fails to appear, or appearing fails to show sufficient cause for remission (of which the Commandery shall judge), the Knight may be suspended by a majority vote of the Commandery. A Knight so suspended who pays his dues within one year thereafter shall be thereby reinstated without action of the Commandery. If such payment is made after one year, he can be reinstated by petition therefor and a majority vote of the Commandery. If the Commandery refuse reinstatement, dues so paid shall be refunded to the delinquent. Dues shall not be charged during suspension.

(E) To have in charge the Seal of the Commandery, and affix it to all papers requiring the same.

(F) To submit his books for examination whenever required to do so by the Commandery or by the Grand Commandery.

(G) To promptly transmit to the Grand Commander and Grand Recorder copies of all the By-Laws and Regulations adopted by the Commandery.

(H) To transmit to the Grand Recorder, immediately after their Annual Conclave, a complete list of the elected and appointed officers together with their mailing addresses.

(I) amended May 1991 To transmit to the Grand Recorder, on or before April 10th of each year, its Annual Returns, in such form as shall be prescribed by the Grand Commandery, covering the immediately preceding period April 1st to March 31st, both inclusive, together with all sums due the Grand Commandery.

(J) ADDED MAY 1990 To see, at the Annual Installation of officers, that the newly installed Commander, Generalissimo, and Recorder have received or will receive from their predecessors, one copy each of the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment, the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Commandery, and the By-Laws of the Constituent Commandery, as well as the Code of Knights Templar Uniform Regulations of Utah.

Section 3-13 SURETY BONDS

APPROVED MAY 1990

Recorders and Treasurers of the Constituent Commanderies shall furnish Corporate Surety Bonds in such form and sum as the Commander may direct, said Surety Bond to be retained in custody of the Grand Recorder. The cost of said Bonds shall be paid by the Commandery to the Grand Commandery.

Section 3-14 FEES

APPROVED MAY 1995

In each Commandery under the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of Utah, the fee of the Order of Companion of the Red Cross and Knight Templar, including the Knight of Malta, shall not be less than Forty Dollars ($40.00). The fee may not be remitted directly or indirectly.

Section 3-15 UNIFORMS

(A) The purchase of a uniform by a candidate shall be optional with the candidate.

(B) Each and every officer of any Constituent Commandery, whether elective or appointive, shall be required to own or possess a dress uniform as prescribed in this constitution prior to his installation.

(C) Each Constituent Commandery shall maintain a unit, or units, equipped with full Templar uniforms, as prescribed by the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Utah, to be worn at full form openings and the conferring of the Order of the Temple.

Section 3-16 ELIGIBILITY TO ORDERS

Anyone -

(A) Who is a Master Mason and Royal Arch Mason and Royal and Select Master, affiliated and in good standing in Lodge, Chapter and Council; or who is an affiliated Master Mason in good standing and who has petitioned a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons for the Capitular degrees and a Council of Royal and Select Masters for the Cryptic degrees, (provided however, that none of the Orders of Knighthood shall be conferred upon said petitioner until he shall have received the Royal Arch Degree and Select Master Degree);

(B) Who is a firm believer in the Christian religion;

(C) Who is physically able to conform to the ceremonies of the Order or whose physical inability to do so shall have been waived by dispensation of the Grand Commander; and

(D) Who, immediately prior to the date of his petition, has resided for at least one (1) year within the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery, and for at least six (6) months within the jurisdiction of the Commandery to which the petition is addressed, or who is a sojourner on whom the Commandery having jurisdiction has waived such jurisdiction; or who is a member of the Active Army, or Navy, Air Force, U.S. Public Health Service, U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey and the National Aeronautical Space Agency of the United States and has been stationed within the territorial jurisdiction of the Commandery petitioned for at least six (6) months immediately prior to the date of his petition; and is eligible to petition for the Orders of Knighthood.

Section 3-17 QUALIFICATIONS NOT TO BE CHANGED

The Orders of Knighthood shall be conferred only upon candidates who possess the qualifications for membership fixed by the Statutes of the Grand Encampment.

Section 3-18 SUCCESSION OF ORDERS

AMENDED MAY 1991

The Orders shall be conferred in the following succession: Red Cross, Knight of Malta and Knight Templar. The Order of Malta and/or the Order of the Red Cross, may be conferred either in full form or in short form.

None of the Orders may be communicated except as provided in Section 23(i), Grand Encampment.

Section 3-19 PETITIONS

All petitions must be on a form approved by the Grand Commandery. A petition signed by more than one petitioner shall not be received.

Section 3-20 WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION

A petition may be withdrawn by the petitioner at any time before ballot.

Section 3-21 PETITION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE AMENDED MAY 1991

A petition, whether for Orders or Membership, shall be referred to a committee of three (3) members of the Commandery, who shall know or personally interview the petitioner, and who shall report in writing as to whether the prayer of the petitioner should be granted. No ballot shall be taken until a report has been made. Only the fact of a report being made, and not its character, shall be entered in the Minutes of the Commandery.

Section 3-22 DUAL MEMBERSHIP

(A) A Knight Templar may be admitted to dual membership in any Commandery, regardless of his residence, but cannot be an officer of more than one Commandery at the same time.

(B) Dual membership may be in two Commanderies under the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of Utah, and may be in two Commanderies in separate jurisdiction if the laws of both Grand Commanderies so provide.

(C) Dual membership may be in any Subordinate Commandery or in any Constituent Commandery under a Grand Commandery whose law so provides. A petition for Dual Membership must be accompanied by a certificate of good standing issued by the Commandery of which the petitioner is a member.

(D) Grand Lodge Code Section 3-6-3 and 3-12-3.

Section 3-23 BALLOT

(A) Every member present when a ballot on a petition is taken is required to vote unless excused by the commander.

(B) An unfavorable report from the Committee does not dispense with the necessity of a ballot.

(C) The ballot upon a petition for the Orders must be secret and unanimous. The reason for casting a black ball or cube cannot be disclosed or inquired into.

(D) Two or more petitions, whether for the orders or Membership, regularly presented, may be balloted upon at one time. If such ballot is unanimous each petitioner should be declared elected. If not, there must be a ballot upon each petition separately, or a large number of petitions may be divided into smaller groups. In case any such group does not receive a unanimous ballot, each petition in the group must then be balloted upon separately. The Commander may order a re-ballot upon any petition before the result has been announced and before any member of the Commandery has left the Asylum.

(E) The doors of the Asylum must be closed and guarded before balloting begins and until it is entirely finished.

Section 3-24 REJECTED PETITIONS

A rejected petitioner for the Orders, if still residing within the jurisdiction of the Commandery petitioned, may again petition after the expiration of six (6) months, but shall not petition any other Commandery until the expiration of three (3) years after such rejection unless the consent of the Commandery by which he was rejected is given by unanimous ballot.

Section 3-25 NOT PROCEEDING AFTER ELECTION

(A) Failure of a Candidate to present himself for the Orders within twelve (12) months after receiving notice of his election voids the election, and any fee paid shall be forfeited unless otherwise decided by vote of the Commandery.

(B) One constituted a Companion of the Order of the Red Cross who fails to appear to receive the remaining Orders within one year after having received the Order of the Red Cross shall not be entitled to receive such remaining Orders unless by a favorable, secret and unanimous ballot of the Commandery.

Section 3-26 OBJECTIONS TO CANDIDATE AFTER BALLOT

(A) A Member of a Commandery in Good Standing, whether or not present when the ballot was taken, may object to the conferring of the Order of the Red Cross upon an elected Candidate, and cannot be required to disclose his reason therefore. The objection may be made either in open Commandery or to the Commander, and is equivalent to rejection by ballot, and the Orders shall not be conferred. The fact that objection was made, and not the name of the objector, shall be reported and entered upon the Minutes, but such objection may be withdrawn before it has been so entered.

(B) Except, as provided in Section 189 and 195 of Grand Encampment Statutes, any companion of the Order of the Red Cross is entitled to receive the remaining Orders unless found unworthy after trial on charges duly preferred. No member of the Commandery, whether or not present when the ballot was taken, shall prevent or delay the conferring of the remaining Order or Orders by a mere objection.

Section 3-27 DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

(A) The dues of the members of each Commandery shall be such as provided in its By-Laws. The Commandery may suspend any member who shall be delinquent in the payment of dues for a period of two (2) years, unless remitted as provided in Section 3-12 (D) of these Statutes.

(B) It may also determine and levy extra assessments as may be necessary by reason of extraordinary expenses and for costs within the range of Templar observances or celebrations and for the good of the Commandery or of the Order; provided that assessments for celebrations or social entertainments cannot be enforced against members not participating in them.

Section 3-28 FORFEITURE OF MEMBERSHIP AND REINSTATEMENT

*201 to 209, inclusive

Section 3-29 DEMITS AND AFFILIATION

Affiliation in Council is necessary to qualify a petitioner for membership in this Jurisdiction.

*191 to 193, inclusive

Section 3-30 APPEALS

No appeal shall lie to the Commandery from a decision of the Commander. When the decision involves the construction or effect of the Constitution, Statutes or Rituals of the Grand Encampment, or the Laws of the Grand Commandery, or the By-Laws of the Commandery, an appeal may be taken to the Grand Commandery by Constituent Commandery, but, pending the decision of the appeal, such ruling of the Commander shall be in full force and effect.

Section 3-31 USE OF MASONIC NAME AND EMBLEMS

Code of Grand Lodge of Utah, Sections 3-5-9 and 3-5-10.

Section 3-32 AMENDMENTS

ADOPTED MAY 1993

(A) All proposed amendments to TITLE III should be handled exactly as the amendments for TITLE II Section 2-25.

(B) By-Laws of Constituent Commanderies will be adopted for their government not inconsistent with TITLE I, II, and III of the Grand Commandery Knight Templar of Utah. By-laws adopted by the Constituent Commanderies shall NOT become effective until approved by the Grand Commander or the Grand Commandery

Section 3-33 DISPLAY OF THE HOLY BIBLE

The Holy Bible shall be displayed at all Templar Conclaves under the direction of the Prelate. Unless otherwise provided ritualistically, the Holy Bible shall be displayed on the Prelate's Lectern, opened to the 28th Chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel, and a small wooden cross shall be displayed thereon.

NOTE: Paragraphs marked (*) indicate a reference to a section in the current edition of the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America. The above Constitution, Laws and Regulations have been prepared by referring to the 1965 Edition along with various changes, amendments, additions and deletions that have taken effect from 1965 to and including 1990 at the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Utah and the Constitution and Statutes of the Grand Encampment of the various Triennials that have taken place up to and including 1988.

He shall receive such compensation as the Commandery may determine.

Section 6. AMENDED MAY 1990 The Treasurer and Recorder, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall each give a surety bond running through the Commandery to the Grand Commandery, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of the office, in such sum and form as the Grand Commandery may designate. The premium therefore is to be paid out of the funds of the Commandery to the Grand Commandery.

ARTICLE IV

Committees

Section 1. The Commander, Generalissimo and Captain General shall constitute a standing committee for the purpose of extending charity to distressed Masons, their wives, widows and orphans, and shall cooperate with like committees of other Masonic Bodies.

Section 2. The Finance Committee of three members appointed by the Commander shall carefully examine the books and accounts of the Treasurer and Recorder prior to the annual conclave in _____ of each year, and report upon them to the Commander at such Conclave; also as to the condition of the property of the commandery, the state of its funds, and shall make such other and further reports and perform such other duties as the Commandery or Commander may direct.

Section 3. Other committees may be appointed by the Commander.

ARTICLE V

Triangle Guard

Section 1. At least twelve designated Sir Knights, together with all elected and appointed officers ex-officio, shall constitute the active Triangle Guard of this Commandery. Past Commanders and other Sir Knights specially so designated shall be Honorary Members of the Triangle Guard, while others so designated shall constitute the Active and Inactive Reserves.

Section 2. At an annual meeting called for that purpose, active members of the Triangle Guard shall elect a First Officer, a Second Officer, an Armorer and an Adjutant, who shall function in such capacities for the ensuing year. Meetings of the Triangle Guard shall be held from time to time on call of the First Officer, or Second Officer in his absence, attested by the Adjutant, or by order of the Commander attested by the Recorder.

Section 3. The duties of the Triangle Guard shall be to assist in the opening and closing of the Commandery in Full Form, in the conferring of the Order of the Temple, in the annual observance of Christmas, Easter and Ascension Sunday, and on other special occasions.

Section 4. The Commandery shall maintain the Triangle Guard Armory, and shall provide for the twelve designated members and members of the Active Reserve, a suitable sword, belt, chapeau, gloves and insignia, to be issued by the Armorer for each member, such equipment promptly to be returned to the Commandery upon retirement. The Armorer shall also issue keys to designated private lockers to each member of the Triangle Guard, and shall preserve and store in reserve unissued items of uniforms and equipment.

ARTICLE VI

Dues

Section 1. The dues of each member of this Commandery shall be _____ Dollars and _____ cents per annum, payable on or before January 1st of each year. Newly created members of this order shall pay pro-rata dues of _____ cents for each month remaining in the current year after their Knighting.

Section 2. A life membership in this Commandery may be granted when good and sufficient reason exists. Such action must be on a motion duly made and seconded and passed by a majority vote of the members present at a stated conclave of the Commandery.

Section 3. This Commandery may remit the dues of a member for good and sufficient reasons by a majority vote of those present at a stated conclave of the Commandery.

Section 4. No appropriation of any of the funds of this Commandery shall be made at any other than a stated conclave, except for charitable purposes.

ARTICLE VII

Petitions

Section 1. All petitions for Orders and for membership shall be referred to a committee of three members of the Commandery, which committee shall make careful inquiry into the character and qualifications of the candidate and report thereon.

Section 2. The fee for the Orders of this Commandery shall be _____ Dollars, which sum shall accompany the petition.

Section 3. A petition for the Orders or for membership must be acted upon within three months after it is presented, except in the case of the petitioner's death or removal from the Jurisdiction, in which event the fee will be returned.

Section 4. Should the applicant be elected and fail to come forward for advancement within one year, his fee shall be forfeited and nothing further can be done in the case, unless for good reasons the Commander otherwise directs.

Section 5. Should the applicant be rejected, the deposit fee shall be returned to him.

Section 6. By dispensation of the Grand Commander, petitions may be voted upon in the same Conclave in which they are presented.

ARTICLE VIII

By-Laws, Amendments, Etc.

Section 1. All members of the Commandery are required to sign the By-Laws upon receiving the Order of the Temple or upon affiliation.

Section 2. These By-Laws may be amended or altered upon notice in writing filed with the Recorder at a Stated Conclave. The Recorder shall give written notice of the proposed amendment or alteration by mail to each member of the Commandery at least fifteen days before the next Stated Conclave. At the next Stated Conclave after the notice of amendment or alteration is received, the same shall be voted upon, and, if two-thirds of the members present and voting concur, shall be adopted subject to approval by the Grand Commander.
