

EASTERTIDE MESSAGE

Right Eminent Sir Knight Jason C. Varner, KYGCH
Grand Commander

pring has once again returned. The days are growing longer and the nights shorter. The cycle of birth is all around us as evidenced by the awaking of the flora and the birth of new fauna. The pagans held festivals during this time of the year to celebrate the survival of winter, and to bless the crops and thank their Gods for the fertility of the animals that they would rely on in the coming months.

We, as Christian Knights, celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at this time; as well as his promise that all who come unto him shall also experience the resurrection and accession into heaven, and enjoy eternal life.

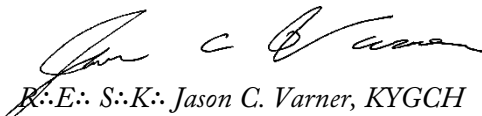

In the book of John Chapter fourteen verse five – Thomas asked the Lord, “Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?” Jesus answered him in verse six by saying “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

Though Christs body was scourged and crucified, though he was sealed in a tomb; the way, the truth, and the life could not be contained or suppressed. The way cannot be destroyed, neither can it be hidden; it will always be found by those who seek it. No binding or actions of men can suppress the truth, eventually it will spring forth and all the world shall know it. The truth is like the sun, you can shut it out for a while; but it will not go away.

This Easter, remember that Christ died for our sins, and bestowed upon us a great charity by doing so. Remember to exemplify Christ’s love to everyone you meet, and have transactions with. Treat them as you wish to be treated, and be of a charitable spirit. I wish you all a peaceful and safe Easter weekend; and look forward to seeing you at our annual convocation in May.

Magna est Veritas et Praevalebit

In His Service,

R.E. S.K. Jason C. Varner, KYGCH

Right Eminent Grand Commander

Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Utah

